

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

COMMERCE ISD E-LETTER • JUNE 17, 2013

Graduates will always be Tigers

A total of 114 seniors gathered at the Texas A&M University-Commerce Fieldhouse June 7 to receive their diplomas. A well-mannered crowd of family and friends filled the venue and expressed their pride as graduates completed their journey at Commerce High School.

Interim CHS Principal Julia Robinson (right) exchanged tokens of remembrance with each senior as they left the stage.

The Class of 2013 leaders included (left to right) Chaney Moreland, president of the National Honor Society; Jacie Arnold, president of the student body; Devin Rodgers, president of the senior class, Kaitlyn Mulkey, salutatorian and JoAnn Jang, valedictorian.

Last day celebrations

Students and teachers across the district took time to say goodbye on the last day of school. Clockwise from top left: CMS students gathered in the gym for a yearbook, etc. signing party. Students in Mrs. Embro's fifth grade class were the stars on the red carpet. CES students head to the bus for the last time and first-grade boys enjoy a group hug.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

Staff recognized at end-of-year picnic

Campus Teachers of the Year included Misti Gardner, CES; Keiondra Simpson, ACW; Celia Reid, CMS; and Trecia Harrell, CHS.

CISD STARS were Sheila DeMidio, CES; Diane Hampton, ACW; Don Lott, CMS and Betty Farrow, CHS.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

The Commerce Fire Department presented the Fill the Boot Award to Commerce Middle School for raising funds to benefit children. Shown left to right are CMS Principal Patrick Just, CISD Board member and CFD representative Gabe Wittkopf and teacher Sherry Rector

Superintendent Blake Cooper presented District Teacher of the Year awards to Keiondra Simpson, ACW,(left) and Trecia Harrell, CHS.

Retiring after 157 combined years of service, (left to right) Harriet Williams, Lisa Coffey, Sarah Jones and Janet John.

